

RAILWAY PROTECTION FORCE

JURISDICTION MAP OF RPF

Introduction about the Zone

North Eastern Railway is Headquartered at Gorakhpur. Major portion of this railway lies along Indo-Nepal Border which is entirely open. Nautanwa, Barhni, Nepalganj Road, Tanakpur, Banbasa & Khatima stations of this Railway are very close to Indo-Nepal border. By virtue of its location, this Railway is very sensitive from Security point of view.

This Railway extends from Ramnagar, Kashipur and Got (all three stations of Izzatnagar Division) in the North West to Chhapra gamin (Varanasi Division) in the East. This Railway basically runs in East –West direction.

Total route km of this Railway is 3431.62 (BG 2701.49, MG 730.13). This Railway mainly serves the state of Uttar Pradesh (3408 Km), and partly the states of Bihar (Km 294.94) & Uttarakhand (Km 186.60).

N.E. Railway comprises of three Railway Divisions namely IZZATNAGAR, LUCKNOW AND VARANASI. The major Stations at all the three Divisional HQs one under Northern Railway. DIESEL LOCOMOTIVE WORKS, Varanasi, a production unit for manufacturing diesel locos, security of which is also looked after by PCSC NE Railway, Gorakhpur.

