No. 2016/LC/MISC/08

The General Managers
All Zonal Railways and Production Units.

New Delhi, Dated: 23.03.2017

Sub: Empanelment of retired Railway Officers and Staff possessing degree in law, as Railway Advocates in Hon'ble High Courts, benches of CAT and other Courts/Tribunals.

The Competent Authority has decided to give preference in the matter of empanelment as Railway Advocate to Retired Railway Personnel, possessing a degree in Law while forming the panels of Railway Advocates for High Courts, Bench of CATs and other Courts/Tribunals.

In order to utilize the experience gained by the officers and staff retiring from legal, personnel and other branches of Railway Establishments, having a degree in law, it is proposed to empanel such personnel, as Railway Advocates in Hon'ble High Courts, benches of CAT and other Courts/Tribunals. Thus the experience gained by these officers/staff while defending railways before various Courts/Tribunals, as also drafting the parawise comments for the court cases being dealt by them while in service can be utilised by Railways, even after their retirement. The knowledge of Working of Courts, Railway Establishment Rules, Regulations and various policies is a pre-condition for being considered for empanelment as Railway Advocate.

On receipt of the application from Retired Railway employee, the same shall be forwarded by the Deputy GM(Law)/ Law Officer of the Zonal Railway/ Railway Establishment, to the General Manager for empanelment in RCT, District/Subordinate Courts and to the Legal Adviser, Railway Board, for empanelment in High Court and Benches of CAT as per extant procedure.
