Sub:Reimbursement of Government share of stipend under National Apprenticeship Promotion Scheme (NAPS) to establishments under Ministry of Railways – reg.

354

Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship (MSDE), Government of India has launched a Mission for Apprenticeship training under the Skill India Mission to give greater opportunity to our youth to enhance their skills for increasing their employment opportunity as well as to build the entrepreneurship skills among them.

Government of India has notified National Apprenticeship promotion Scheme (NAPS) on 19th August 2016 wherein 25% of prescribed stipend subject to a maximum of Rs. 1500/- per month per apprentice is reimbursed to employers by Government of India. In addition, basic training cost up to Rs. 7500 per apprentice for a course of 500 hours duration is also shared.

While most of the Railways/PUs are regularly getting reimbursement through regional RDATs, it has been advised by MSDE that certain establishment had not claim reimbursement from RDATs citing that they do not have bank a/c where money received towards reimbursement of stipend could be deposited. It is therefore, advised that an Officer of your railway may be deputed to RDAT to immediately sort out the issue in consultation with associate finance of the Railway. It is also advised that all railway may kindly submit a quarterly report regarding reimbursement claim pending finalised with RDATs. Report as on 01.09.2017 may be provided to this office early.
