

Lucknow division was established on 1st May 1969. The division serves 14 districts of Northern and Eastern Uttar Pradesh, as well as the Indo-Nepal area. The division is enriched with many important rivers – Gomti, Ghaghra, Saryu and Rapti which also define the culture and religion of the area. The important cities under this division are Lucknow, Gonda, Basti, Gorakhpur, Balrampur, Sitapur, Baharaich and Khiri. The division extends on the main line from outer signal of Barabanki junction to distant signal of Gorakhpur Cantt Jn. station. The division extends over following branch lines.

- Gorakhpur – Anandnagar – Bahrni – Balrampur – Gonda
- Anandnagar – Nautanwa
- Mankapur – Ayodhya
- Gonda – Bahraich – Nanpara – Nepalganj Road
- Lucknow – Mailani
- Lucknow – Malhaur
- Nanpara – Mailani (M.G)

With the total of 1151.563 Route kilometers, the division is predominantly passenger-oriented. Total manpower of Lucknow Division is 14578 in which 107 are in gazetted cadre and 14471 are in nongazated cadre. Entire manpower is distributed in 15 departments.
