

Additional Divisional Railway Manager (Operations)

Shri Ajai Varshney has joined the post of Additional Divisional Railway Manager/Operations, Izzatnagar Division of North Eastern Railway on July 15, 2019. Prior to his new assignment he was Senior Divisional Engineer/Coordination of Varanasi division.

Born on October 22, 1970 Shri Varshney belongs to Lucknow. After completing his primary and senior secondary education from Saint Francis College, Lucknow he obtained Bachelor's degree in Engineering from Kamla Nehru Institute of Technology, Sultanpur and Master's degree from Indian Institute of Technology, Roorkee. He entered railway service through Indian Railway Engineering Service exam of the year 1996.

Firstly he was posted as Assistant Divisional Engineer/ Barauni. He successfully rendered his service as Executive Engineer/Track Modernisation, Gorakhpur and Deputy Chief Engineer/Construction, Gorakhpur and Izzatnagar. He has also served as Senior Divisional Engineer-II and Senior Divisional Engineer/Coordination, Izzatnagar. He is highly experienced in civil engineering pertaining to maintenance and construction works. He was awarded at General Manager's level in the year-2005 for his extensive knowledge devotion, dedication and hard work. He is the proud recipient of the highest award at Minister for Railways, Government of India level during the year-2009 and 2018.